CORNER-STONE CEREMONIES

Music by Choir of Fifty Trained Voices Will Be One of Program's Features.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., September 5.— Grand Master Francis D. Winston and Grand Secretary John C. Drewry, of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons, held a conference this morning and outlined the program for the ceremonies attending the laying of the corner-stone of the Grand Lodge Temple here, October 15th, Wednesday of State Fair week. An invitation has been extended to Hon. James D. Richardson, who is the head of the Masonic order in the United States, being chief of the thirty-third degree Masons for this country. Mr. Richardson is a Tennessee man, with headquarters at Washington. He was for many years prominent in Congress, being Democratic leader on the floor of the House.
It is confidently expected that he will accept the invitation to deliver the principal address for the laying of the corner-stone of the temple.

General W. R. Cox, of Edgecombe county, who is a member of the temple building committee, chairman of it in fact, will deliver an address, in which he will review the history of the movement by the Grand Lodge in North Carolina for the erection of a Grand Lodge Temple.

Pushing Work Rapidly.
Grand Master Winston will deliver a general charge to the Masons of the State appropriate to the occasion. There will be a special choir of fifty voices for special music. Not less than ten thousand Masons from all over the State are expected here for the occasion. A special platform will be erected in Market Street, facing the temple, three stories of which will be up, each to be so improvised as to hold the crowd.

CAPTURED AFTER TWENTY YEARS

After Escaping Two Decades Ago He Married and Now Has Five Children.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., September 5.—Calvin Westmoreland, fifty years old, who escaped while a State convict twenty years ago, was arrested to-day, and will be carried to the penitentiary to-morrow to serve a year and fifteen days, the remainder of his three-year sentence. Westmoreland was working on Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad when he escaped. He has been living here for ten years. He was convicted in Stokes county of larceny, stealing an old whiskey still.
Westmoreland has married since his escape and has five children.

CAROLINA GROWING RICHER BY LEAPS AND BOUNDS.

RALEIGH, N. C., September 5.—Auditor Dixon says the tax returns on property throughout the State will show a great increase in assessment values this year—the greatest, in fact, in the history of the State. He is advised that the increase in assessment in Cumberland county alone will be about two million dollars. This is one of the really prosperous counties in the State, in which the tax assessments heretofore have been such as to make the county a burden to the State, in that more money was paid by the State into the county for public schools, penitentiaries and other purposes than was paid to the State treasury from the county in State taxes. A number of the other counties in the same category with Cumberland in the past have advanced assessments such as Cumberland has.

"It is the quality of the malt, the quality of the hops, the quality of the Pabst methods that make."

The Beer of Quality

"There is a reason for this Pabst quality."
"For four generations the constant aim and purpose of Pabst has

SHOOT MAN FROM UPPER WINDOW, WOUNDS SERIOUS

BRISTOL, TENN., September 5.— Robert Collins, a Bristol young man, narrowly escaped death at the hands of William Campbell here this afternoon, when the latter fired upon him from an upper story window of a disorderly house. Collins was standing on the doorstep at the time. The bullet penetrated his left cheek, plowing its way through to his neck, where it lodged. Jealousy over a woman is said to have caused the shooting.
Campbell, whose home is in Johnson City, Tenn., made his escape. The officers are hunting for him.

CONVICTED, BUT GOES TO OLD JOB

Jury Finds McAnulty Guilty, but Begs for Mercy for Him.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SALISBURY, N. C., September 5.—J.
D. McAnulty was to-day convicted of manslaughter in Rowan Court here for the killing of Robert W. Owens, keeper of the county pest-house, August 2d.
In returning a verdict the jury prayed the mercy of the court. Judge Justice gave the prisoner a minimum sentence of four months in the county jail, allowing the county commissioners the privilege of hiring him out.
This was promptly done.

The Salisbury Water Commission contracted for McAnulty's services at fifty dollars per month, and the latter returned to his old position at the water plant to-night. No bond was required for his faithfulness.

LADIES ASK PERMISSION TO PUT MEMORIAL IN CAPITOL.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., September 5.—It has just been decided by the North Carolina Society, Daughters of the Revolution, to place the memorial of the society proposes to erect to the Eden-ton Tea Party in the State Capitol Building, and a committee of the ladies has with Governor Glenn a petition to be allowed to place it in one of the niches in the rotunda of the Capitol Building.

It is very probable that this permission will be granted by the Council of State, to whom the Governor will refer the request.

The memorial is to be bronze, representing a big teapot, appropriately engraved and encircled with a wreath of pine cones and tea leaves.

for some time that Mr. Tucker's friends would bring him out as a gubernatorial candidate, and the announcement of his candidacy has been anxiously awaited. Interviewed on the subject to-day, Mr. Tucker made this brief statement and stopped talking:

announcement of my candidacy for this high office."

FINE OLD DARKEY HEAVILY FOR CONDUCTING SPEAKEASY

HEATHSVILLE, VA., September 5.— James Wiggins, an aged colored man, was brought before Justice Eickel-berger recently charged with the illicit sale of whiskey. The evidence was conclusive that "Uncle Jim" has been conducting a speakeasy for some time past, selling all kinds of whiskey and caterwauling largely to the white trade.
His place of business is at and around his home, near this village. That he has been doing a thriving business no one will question from the popularity of his home.

Justice Eickelberger paid little attention to the plea of "old age" and imposed a fine of $100.
